Details may change, so please refer to the website for the latest and most up-to-date information. This can be found on the AALARA website.

PARTNERSHIPS

Nothing contained in this agreement will be deemed to constitute a partnership, joint venture or agency relationship between you and AALARA, and you must not do anything where you will in any way, be represented that you are a partner of the Australian Amusement, Leisure and Recreation Association and/or the Conference Organisers.

DETAILED REQUIREMENTS AND DUE DATES

The AALARA24 Conference Committee and Conference Organiser requirements regarding the artwork for logos and advertisements, specifications and delivery details for signage, arrangements for static display, delivery of satchel inserts or other required information will be sent to you in a confirmation letter at a later date with the relevant due dates.

In the event that materials, information or artwork required by the Conference Organiser are not received by the designated due date, their use for the intended purpose cannot be guaranteed. The value of these entitlements will not be refunded if this is the case.

Logos will be requested in PDF, jpg and .eps format, at least high resolution 300dpi. Should an alternative format be received, the Conference Organiser cannot be held responsible for the quality of the logos displayed in any promotional material.

RIGHT OF REFUSAL

AALARA will offer all sponsorships to the sponsoring company from the year before prior to solicitation of new and or additional sponsors for a previously sponsored item. If the previous sponsor company chooses not to sponsor the same event, AALARA reserves the right to seek alternative sponsors at their own discretion. The first right of refusal has a term limit of one year. After that time, the sponsorship is placed back in the general pool for open bid.
